FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Washington County Director of Schools Kimber Halliburton is excited to announce the hiring of Timothy Post as Washington County Schools' new Transportation Supervisor. Mr. Post is a Veteran and served in Army Special Operations from 1997-2011. Mr. Post was deployed multiple times and served as the Non-Commissioned Officer in Charge, managing four Civil Military Support Element teams deployed to Yemen, Tajikistan, Pakistan, and Afghanistan. He also served as the Motor Pool Sergeant in Bosnia-Herzegovina, Afghanistan, and Qatar. While deployed to Afghanistan, he coordinated with local contractors, the United Nations, Governmental Organizations, and Non-Governmental Organizations to secure contracts to build roads, schools, wells, and deliver goods and services to the outlying villages in over four provinces. While working for an aerospace company (2012-2016), Mr. Post created ad hoc processes and procedures for nearly every program in the Shipping/Logistics Department. He served as Media Director and 5th Quarter Director for New Victory Baptist Church in 2016-17. Mr. Post is married to a wonderful woman, Christy Post, and is blessed with two children. He and his family live in Chuckey, Tennessee.
