FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Daniel Boone High School Educators win Yale Educator Award

Ms. Sheila Clark, English Teacher, and Mr. Jonathan Odom, Counselor, are 2018 Yale Educator Award winners. Both educators were nominated by 2018 Daniel Boone graduate Nashirra Best for this prestigious award. Congratulations to both of these deserving educators!

“The Yale Office of Undergraduate Admissions has the distinct pleasure of recognizing the following educators as recipients of the 2018 Yale Educator Award. The Yale Educator Recognition Program recognizes outstanding educators from around the world who have supported and inspired their students to achieve at high levels. Matriculating students are invited to nominate high school educators, and a committee composed of Yale admissions officers reviews the nominations individually and designates recipients. Of this year’s 371 nominees, who represent 42 states and 12 countries, 59 teachers and 28 counselors were selected to receive the award. In September, the winners were sent engraved desk sets and congratulatory letters, and administrators of the high schools were notified of their achievement.”
