

TENNESSEE VIRTUAL LEARNING ACADEMY

OPENS ENROLLMENT FOR 2017-18 SCHOOL YEAR

Washington County, TN (June 30, 2017)

Tennessee Virtual Learning Academy (TVLA), a statewide online public school, is now accepting enrollments for grades 7-12 for the 2017-18 school year. The enrollment process can be completed online at www.wcde.com. As a fully accredited public school with a traditional academic calendar from August to June, TVLA offers a comprehensive, tuition-free online learning option for all Tennessee students with built-in flexibility. Courses include core academics, world languages, and electives. In addition, TVLA offers dual enrollment opportunities, which allows students to take college courses and earn college credit. All credits will apply toward high school graduation requirements. "Tennessee Virtual Learning Academy is excited to kick off its enrollment period for the 2017-18 school year," said Jamie Gray, Principal of Tennessee Virtual Learning Academy. "We look forward to the opportunity to educate children in the state of Tennessee, and continue the success that we've had in our school."
