

David Crockett High School is proud to introduce the founding members of the newly formed Alejandro González Iñárritu Chapter of The Sociedad Honoraria Hispánica (SHH). The SHH was formed in 1953 by the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese and is a national honor society that honors high school students who show a serious commitment to their study of Hispanic cultures and their languages and promoting friendship among peoples of the world. These 9 DCHS students have maintained a 3.5 GPA or higher in their Spanish classes. The formal induction ceremony was held in front of friends and family in the David Crockett High School library on Thursday February 9th, 2017.

Students honored for excellence:

Taylor Carmack, Seaira Cloyd, Heather Constable, Luis Correa, James Hill, Makina Lambert, Marena Long, and Goretí Lopez. Not pictured: Darren Carder.
